The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, September 22.

The SPEECH of his Excellency CHARLES KNOWLES, Eſq; Governor of Jamaica, Captain General, Chancellor, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, to the Honourable the Council and Aſſembly of this Iſland; deliver'd on Tueſday, the 18*th of* September, 1753.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I HAVE called you early together to give you Time for your Deliberations, as there are many important Matters which require your immediate Attention; and I hope you will proceed to the Publick Buſineſs with that Temper and Unanimity which is ſo happily eſtabliſhed amongſt you, and from whence ſo many good Effects have already been felt.

It is with great Satisfaction I acquaint you, that on viſiting the ſeveral Negroe Towns, I found a good Diſpoſition in thoſe People for maintaining the Peace (notwithſtanding ſeveral evil Reports to the contrary) I have renewed and confirmed the Privileges granted to them by Law; and as there ſeems to be a Spirit of Induſtry amongſt them, and a firm Reliance on the eſtabliſhed Treaties, I have no Doubt of their continuing faithful, and becoming uſeful, to this Community.

The Improvements in the diſtant Parts of this Iſland through which I paſſed, both as to the Increaſe of Sugar-works and white Settlers, gave me the trueſt Satisfaction; and as there is a wide Field ſtill for greater Improvements, I muſt earneſtly recommend this Matter to your moſt ſerious Conſideration; and as you know the Nature of your Country, and are ſo intereſted in Point of Security in augmenting the Number of your People, I perſuade myſelf no Endeavours will be wanting on your Parts towards improving the uncultivated Lands, and making further Proviſion for the Encouragement of new Comers.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I have ordered a Plan of the Fort now building at Muſqueto Point, and an Account of the Expence incurred to be laid before you, and hope it will not deter you from raiſing ſuch further Supplies as may be neceſſary for perfecting a Work ſo eſſential to the Defence of the Iſland, and the immediate Protection of the Harbour of Kingſton; a much greater Progreſs would have been made therein, could a ſufficient Number of labouring Negroes been procured for filling in the Ramparts.

The ruinous Condition of Rock-Fort is another Object that I muſt alſo recommend to your Conſideration, that Place being of ſuch Importance to the Security of the Town of Kingſton by Land, that I perſuade myſelf you will make an immediate Proviſion for having that Paſs effectually fortified and ſecured.

The great Scarcity of Money in the Publick Treaſury to anſwer the immediate Exigencies of the Government, will ſoon give a Wound to the Publick Credit if not attended to; and as I underſtand it proceeds from the Taxes not being paid regularly into the Receiver-General's Hands, I make no Doubt but you will think of ſome effectual Method for collecting the ſame.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I have nothing farther to recommend to you than digeſting of your Laws into one Code or Syſtem, in Purſuance of his Majeſty's Inſtructions, which I communicated to you laſt Seſſion, and the Promulgating ſuch Laws now in Force which are not printed, and I hope you will pay that dutiful Regard to his Majeſty's Inſtructions to me in framing all your Bills, as I may be able readily to give my Aſſent to them.

Let me exhort you in general, to make uſe of the preſent happy Conjuncture of Union and Concord for the effectual Security and Improvement of the Iſland, and to enforce the Execution of the Laws for ſuppreſſing the Robberies and Inſolence of your Negroe Slaves, which are inconſiſtent with all good Government, and endanger the Lives and Properties of the Inhabitants, whoſe Happineſs and flouriſhing Condition I have moſt truly at Heart.

Jamaica, ſſ.

To his Excellency CHARLES KNOWLES, Eſq; Captain General, and Governor in Chief, in and over this his Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, and the Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the ſame, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Aſſembly of Jamaica, return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for your Speech at the Opening of the Seſſion, and as we have nothing more truly at Heart, than the Happineſs and Proſperity of our Country, we ſhall proceed to the Diſpatch of the ſeveral Matters recommended to us, with that Temper and Diſpoſition, from whence alone publick Councils receive their Weight and Authority.

We obſerve with great Satisfaction the Improvements made at the ſeveral Negroe-Towns, and we cannot doubt, from your Excellency's Care and prudent Management, that thoſe People will continue in their Allegiance to our Sovereign, and thereby greatly contribute to the further Settlement of the internal Parts of the Iſland.

Your Excellency's Recommendation, and a due Regard to our own Intereſt and Security, will engage us to promote, with the utmoſt Ardour, every Meaſure that can be ſuggeſted for extending the cultivation of our Lands, and increaſing the Number of White Inhabitants; and we beg leave to aſſure your Excellency, that the ſlow Progreſs hitherto made in ſettling this Iſland, in Compariſon to ſome other of his Majeſty's Colonies, has been more owing to the Difficulties and Expences in making Settlements here, and other Diſcouragements ariſing from the Nature of our Climate and Lands, than a want of Zeal in the Inhabitants, and a ſincere Deſire to forward ſo neceſſary and eſſential a Work.

We cannot turn our Eyes to the State of the Forts and Fortifications without acknowledging, with real Gratitude, the Fatigue and Labour you have undergone, by a perſonal Attendance on the Works at Muſqueto Point. The extraordinary Progreſs that has been there made, with the ſtrict Oeconomy with which that Buſineſs has been conducted, are diſtinguiſhed Marks of your Zeal for the Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and a tender Concern for the Eaſe of his People, and we cannot but deplore our unhappy Circumſtances, that will not permit us to enjoy the full Benefit of your Excellency's Knowledge and Abilities in that Art for compleating all our Fortifications, whilſt we have the Happineſs of your Preſence to direct them; but we cannot doubt, from his Majeſty's known and paternal Goodneſs, that he will graciouſly condeſcend to offer us ſome Relief and Aſſiſtance, and we ſhall, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, endeavour to raiſe ſuch further Supplies as may be neceſſary for putting our Fortifications in a more reſpectible Condition.

And we aſſure your Excellency, that having the trueſt Senſe of the Benefits we have enjoyed during your Adminiſtration, your Excellency will find ſuch a ſuitable Return of Gratitude and Reſpect as a juſt and ſteady Adminiſtration of Government deſerves; being convinced that the only End of your Actions is the Protection and Welfare of the People over whom you preſide.

Paſſed the Aſſembly the 20*th Day of September*, 1753.

CHARLES PRICE, Speaker.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

IF any Thing could add to the Eſteem I already have for the Aſſembly of this Iſland, it would be increaſed by the Confidence you repoſe in me, and the Zeal you expreſs for the Public Good: I aſſure you I will never abuſe that Truſt; I came determined to diſcharge my Duty to his Majeſty faithfully, and to ſerve this Country, and I will ſteadily purſue all ſuch Meaſures as can accompliſh thoſe deſirable Ends.

October 20.

On Thurſday laſt his Excellency the Governor ſent a Meſſage to the Aſſembly commanding their Attendance, when his Excellency was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the ASSEMBLY,

IT is the greateſt Concern to me, when I am under a Neceſſity of refuſing my Aſſent to any of your Bills; but as the appointing a Commiſſioner for receiving and iſſuing Publick Money, in the additional Duty Bill, or any of your Money Bills, in Derogation of the Officer appointed by the Crown, and the framing the Proceſs Bill for a limited Time, and without a ſuſpending Clauſe, are ſo contrary to the Tenor of his Majeſty's Inſtructions to me, that I cannot paſs them; I am therefore obliged to put you under a ſhort Prorogation, that you may have another Opportunity of re-conſidering and altering thoſe Bills (and framing any others you may think neceſſary) without being liable to thoſe Objections.

I do therefore in his Majeſty's Name, by and with the Advice of his Council of this Iſland, prorogue this Aſſembly to the 19th Day of this inſtant October, and the Aſſembly is hereby prorogued accordingly.

The Speech of his Excellency Charles Knowles, Eſq; Governor of Jamaica, Captain General, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, to the Honourable the Council and Aſſembly of this Iſland. Delivered on Friday the 19*th of October*, 1753.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the ASSEMBLY,

I Have again called you together, to give you an Opportunity of framing your Bills in ſuch a Manner, as I may be able to give my Aſſent to them, without diſobeying his Majeſty's Commands.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I am perſuaded, when you ſhall have weighed the Conveniency of having all your Funds lodged in one and the ſame Hand, and the Inconvenience and Confuſion that formerly was introduced into your Finances by a contrary Practice, which will certainly happen again, if that ſhould be the Caſe; I cannot doubt, but you will be of Opinion, that his Majeſty's Receiver-general is the moſt proper Perſon to have the Reception and Payment of all publick Money raiſed.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

You have ſeen his Majeſty's Inſtructions with regard to your paſſing Bills, without inſerting a Clauſe therein, for ſuſpending the Execution thereof, till his Majeſty's Pleaſure ſhall be known.

You know the Fate of former Acts, from ſuch a Clauſe being omitted, and you have ſeen the Report of the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations to the King, upon the Acts paſſed in the Years 1751 and 1752.

I muſt therefore intreat you to make a Judgment yourſelves, whether I can give my Aſſent again to any Law of ſuch a Nature, without a ſuſpending Clauſe, and of how little Benefit it would be to you and the People of this Iſland, if I did.

Once more let me intreat you to comply with the Commands of your Sovereign, who hath upon all Occaſions extended the moſt diſtinguiſhed Marks of his royal Favour to this Colony.

To his Excellency Charles Knowles, Eſq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over this his Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, and other the Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE beg leave to return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for your Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion, and to aſſure your Excellency that it cannot but be Matter of the greateſt Concern to us, not to have your Approbation of ſuch Meaſures as we have judged neceſſary for the publick Utility, being ſatisfied that your Excellency's only Aim has been to promote the Service of his Majeſty, and the Peace and Welfare of this Colony.

We have taken into our moſt ſerious Conſideration, the ſeveral important Matters recommended to us, and as we have had the moſt diſtinguiſhed Marks of his Majeſty's royal and paternal Care, your Excellency cannot doubt of our moſt inviolable Attachment to ſo gracious a Sovereign, and of our Readineſs of complying with his Commands in every Inſtance conſiſtent with the Truſts repoſed in us by the People, and thoſe Rights which we do moſt humbly apprehend ourſelves entitled to, under the happy Influence of his Majeſty's mild Government.

We beg Leave humbly to lay before your Excellency the annexed Reſolutions, which we hope will be ſufficient to juſtify our Proceedings to your Excellency.

Paſſed the Aſſembly, the 30*th Day of October*, 1753.

CHARLES PRICE, Speaker.

RESOLVED, That it is the inherent and undoubted Right of the Repreſentatives of the People, to raiſe and apply Monies for the Services and Exigencies of Government, and to appoint ſuch Perſon or Perſons for the Receiving and Iſſuing thereof as they ſhall think proper, which Rights this Houſe hath exerted, and will always exert, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall judge moſt conducive to the Service of his Majeſty, and the Intereſt of his People.

Reſolved, That it appears by the Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of England, granted to Sir Thomas Lynch, Knt. by his late Majeſty King CHARLES II. in the Thirty-third Year of his Reign, appointing him the ſaid Sir Thomas Lynch, Captain General and Governor of this Iſland; and by all the Letters Patent of his ſaid Majeſty and his Succeſſors, to this preſent Time, appointing Captains-General, Governors, and Commanders in Chief of this Iſland, and by many other authenthick Records, that the Council and Aſſembly of this Iſland, from that Time to this Day, enjoyed the Right of propoſing Laws, Statutes and Ordinances for the Publick Peace, Welfare and good Government of this Iſland, and that nothing might be paſſed or done by the ſaid Council and Aſſembly to the Prejudice of the Crown. That the ſaid Captains-General, Governors, or Commanders in Chief of this Iſland, for the Time being, have enjoyed a Negative Voice in the making and paſſing all ſuch Laws, Statutes and Ordinances, and that ſuch Laws, Statutes and Ordinances, have been and were in full Force and Effect, according to the Tenor of them, from the Time the ſaid Captains-General, Governors or Commanders in Chief, gave their Aſſent to them, until they were diſallowed by the Crown, and ſuch Diſallowance ſignified to ſuch Captains-General, Governors or Commanders in Chief. And that the ſaid Method of propoſing, making and paſſing of Laws, and of their being in Force, and of their Diſallowance by the Crown, is as nearly agreeable to the Prerogative of the Crown of England, and of the Rights and Privileges of the People of that Kingdom, to which the People of this Iſland are undoubtedly intitled, as the preſent Situation of this Iſland can admit of.

Reſolved, That it doth appear, that no Clauſe hath ever been inſerted in any Act, of a publick Nature, paſſed by the Legiſlature of this Iſland, ſuſpending the Execution thereof till his Majeſty's Pleaſure ſhould be known.

Reſolved, That if ſuch a Clauſe had been inſerted in Acts heretofore paſſed by the Legiſlature of this Iſland; this Iſland could not have been preſerved and defended from its foreign and inteſtine Enemies.

Reſolved, That if ſuch a Clauſe ſhould be inſerted in Acts to be hereafter paſſed in this Iſland, and the Legiſlature ſhould be thereby delayed upon emergent Occaſions from exerting the utmoſt Force of the whole Iſland, as well of Money as Men, to defend and preſerve themſelves and their Fellow-Subjects, his Majeſty may be in Danger of loſing this Colony, and the People their Laws, Liberty and Property.

Reſolved, That the inſerting ſuch a Clauſe in Acts to be paſſed by the Legiſlature of this Iſland, may be attended with this manifeſt Inconvenience to the Inhabitants thereof, in as much as ſuch Acts after they ſhall paſs, may lie for many Years without being offered to his Majeſty for his royal Pleaſure thereupon, as many heretofore paſt have done, and now do; which if it ſhould happen, would be of much worſe Conſequence than the Diſallowance of them by his Majeſty could be: For in the one Caſe, his Majeſty, from his moſt gracious Condeſcenſion, is generally pleaſed to permit his Reaſons for ſuch Diſallowance to be ſet forth in the Subſtance of the ſame. The Legiſlature of this Iſland might therefrom be acquainted with the Objections that were made to them, and might have an Opportunity of framing other Acts in ſuch a Manner as would be free from thoſe Objections, and agreeable to his Majeſty's Sentiments; and in the mean Time, until his Majeſty's Diſallowance of ſuch Acts ſhould be ſignified, they would be in Force, and thereby ſome Remedies (tho' improper Ones in his Majeſty's Opinion) be provided againſt Evils or Inconveniences that may happen; whereas, in the other Caſe, let the Evils or Inconveniences be ever ſo great, which the Legiſlature ſhould be deſirous of redreſſing or preventing by their Acts, they muſt patiently bear them, and wait the Event of the Remedies they had provided, without having it in their Power either to preſent them to his Majeſty, to know his Pleaſure thereupon, or to take any new Methods to help themſelves whilſt the former ſhould be in Suſpence.

Reſolved, That as the inſerting ſuch ſuſpending Clauſes in Bills of a publick Nature to be paſſed by the Legiſlature of this Iſland, will not be for his Majeſty's Service, or the Peace, Welfare, Good-government and Security of this Iſland, but on the contrary, will endanger the former, and be prejudicial to the Crown; and as ſuch Inſertion will be a very great Alteration of the known and eſtabliſhed Conſtitution of this Iſland, and as the ſame is derogatory to the undoubted Right the Subject hath of propoſing Laws to the Crown: This Houſe cannot conſent to the Inſertion of ſuch Clauſes in publick Bills, without giving up the Rights of the People, their own Liberties, and the happy Conſtitution which they have enjoyed under his preſent moſt gracious Majeſty and his royal Predeceſſors, for above ſeventy Years.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I Thank you for this very kind Addreſs, and the juſt Sentiments you expreſs for my Adminiſtration.

The Reſolutions annexed to your Addreſs I ſhall take into Conſideration, and compare with his Majeſty's Inſtructions, whoſe Commands I am in Duty bound to obey.

Frankfort, Oct. 11. We are informed that in the Number of important Affairs, which will be brought upon the Carpet when the King of Great-Britain ſhall arrive in the Empire, that of the Erection of a 10th Electorate in Favour of the Houſe of Heſſe-Caſſel will be one of the principal, and that this Buſineſs will go Hand-in-Hand with that of the Election of a King of the Romans.

Bruſſels, Oct. 14. The Empreſs Queen has cauſed an Ordinance to be publiſhed, forbidding all Perſons to give Credit to any Officer, from the Captain to the Cornet or Enſign, for more than 100 Florins, and not even to lend them any inferior Sum, without Leave from the Colonel of the Regiment, their Pay not being to be ſtopt for the Payment of any of their Creditors who have not that Permiſſion.

Paris A-la-main, October 15. We flatter ourſelves at preſent that the Differences which have prevailed for ſome Time between the Parliament and Clergy, will be ſpeedily terminated. This favourable Conjecture takes its Riſe from the continual diſpatching of Couriers to thoſe Towns whither the ſeveral Members of the Parliamenliament were baniſhed; and from the Orders that have been given to prepare Lodgings at Pontoiſe, which it is ſaid are deſigned for the Members that are to be recalled. It is aded, that in order to accelerate this Accommodation the Clergy and Parliament have both receded from thoſe Claims which contributed moſt to divide them.

Another Affair which at preſent engages the publick Attention is the Number of Perſons that crowd our Priſons; which is ſo great, that there is Reaſon to apprehend the Goal Diſtemper will get among them; and the new Chamber of Vacations cannot proceed in their Trials, for want of the Regiſters that contain the firſt Part of the Proſecutions againſt them.

From the Utrecht Gazette.

London, Oct. 12. The Bombay-Caſtle, belonging to the Eaſt-India Company, who is arrived from Bengal, has brought Letters whoſe Contents do not inform us of any Diſpoſitions towards reſtoring Peace on the Coaſt of Coromandel; but, on the contrary, adviſe, that the Engliſh, at the Inſtances of the Nabobs in Alliance with them, were making Preparations for a new Expedition againſt the Nabobs in the French Intereſt; and that Mr. Dupleix, Governor of Pondicherry, was likewiſe preparing to ſupport his Allies; ſo that from the Meaſures taken on both Sides, we may expect the News of another Battle in thoſe Parts; and perhaps the two Companies may Battle on ſo long, that they may teach the Natives to drive them both out at laſt.

LONDON, October 25.

They write from Stockholm, that on the 8th Inſtant, the Queen of Sweden was ſafely delivered of a Princeſs; and that the 10th Inſtant, was fix'd for the Ceremony of baptizing the young Princeſs.

There is a Report that ſeveral Men of War will ſoon be put into Commiſſion.

Private Letters from Paris, by Yeſterday's French Mail, adviſe, that ſome new Treaty or Convention is on the Tapis betwsen the Courts of Verſailles, Stockholm, and Berlin, in order to ſettle the Contingents of Troops, &c. which they are to furniſh reſpectively in caſe any of them be forced into a War againſt Great-Britain, Auſtria, or Ruſſia.

From Parma we hear, that they have lately received conſiderable Remittances from Madrid, of which the greateſt Part is to be employed in recruiting and augmenting the Troops of the Infant Duke, to the End that his Royal Highneſs may be ready to act in Concert with the Court of Naples, in caſe the late Treaty between the Houſe of Auſtria and the Duke of Modena ſhould be productive of new Diſturbances in Italy.

The Somerſet Man of War, of 70 Guns, commanded by Capt. Holmes, is ordered to be got ready for ſailing in a few Weeks.

October 26. We learn from Naples, that ſeveral Councils have been lately held there which ſat very late, and it is manifeſt that ſomething of great Importance is in Agitation. An Order has been iſſued for recruiting all the Corps.

Some Advices from the Hague ſuggeſt, that ſince their High Mightineſſes entered into ſome Negotiations relative to the Alliance in the North, they have been diſturbed by ſeveral diſagreeable Applications. His Daniſh Majeſty's Envoy has demanded in his Maſter's Name, the Payment of certain Subſidies of a very old Standing; the Pruſſian Secretary has intimated, that the Debts due from the Government of Eaſt-Friezland are to bear for the future but three per Cent. Intereſt; and the Miniſter of the Biſhop and Prince of Liege has alſo preſented a Memorial, the Contents of which are not known, but from certain Circumſtances it is collected they are not very pleaſing. It is morally certain the Court of Madrid is diſſatisfied with Regard to what paſſes in America; and the renewing the Treaty and Commerce with France, with which we have been ſo long flattered, ſeems to be poſtponed to the Greek Kalends.

The Humour of Parliamenteering, not to conſider it in any worſe Light, is at preſent ſo ſtrong, that it is eſteemed ſufficient to cancel all Duties, and to diſſolve all Connections. The Death of a Father does not bring a Man up, the Indiſpoſition of a Wife does not draw a Huſband from his Canvas. If this flowed from a true Spirit of Patriotiſm, what a People ſhould we be? But conſidering what a Spirit it is, from whence this really flows, what a People are we like to become!

Amongſt other modern Improvements, one would imagine the Art of taxing carried to the utmoſt Height. For what is there, may one ſay, that is not taxed? The Bread we eat pays a Land-tax, our ſmall-Beer a Malt-tax, the Materials of our Hats, the Leather of our ſhoes are taxed; and while the Support of the Public requires this from Neceſſaries, from Soap, Coals and Candles, we cannot repine at taxing our Vices.

But there is one Vice untaxed-----Idleneſs.

The Utopians are employed in framing a Scheme for taxing that, the Produce of which, they think, would provide amply for the Poor---In due Time the World ſhall ſee it.

It is hoped certain Rumours of a Subſidy Treaty will ſubſide.

Extract of a Letter from Goſport, Oct. 23.

"Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Coronation, the Morning was uſhered in with ringing of Bells, and the Standard of England was hoiſted upon the Platform, Gun Wharff, and at the Dock; and all the Ships in the Harbour had their Colours out, particularly the Commiſſioners Yacht was decorated with Colours in a very gay and handſome Manner; the Guns on the Platform, and on the Gun-Wharff, were fired at twelve o' Clock, and the Invalids fired three Rounds; at one a Clock the Guard-ſhips fired; in this Town in the Evening were Bon-Fires and Illuminations, firing of Guns, &c. &c. The whole concluded with all Demonſtrations of Loyalty ſuitable to the happy Occaſion."

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, dated September 14, 1753, to a Friend in London, wherein he makes the following Reflections, viz.

"Buſineſs in this Garriſon is very much declined; we hope Times will mend for the better, which we are in great Expectation of under the Command of Col. Braddock; for in Truth no One has ever behaved better, both to the Army and Inhabitants, he exceeding in Goodneſs and Prudence moſt of his Predeceſſors; and no doubt he will give Encouragement to Trade, and keep good Diſcipline amongſt the Soldiers, protect the Inhabitants, and make every Body happy."

PHILADELPHIA, January 8.

By a Letter from Captain Blair, of the Ship Molly, belonging to this Place, and bound to Liſbon from Maryland, we have the following Account, viz. "That on the 24th ult. he left Saſſafras, with the Wind ſoutherly, and came to in the Evening two Leagues below the River: That in the Night they had ſo violent a Gale of Wind, that notwithſtanding his Yards and Topmaſts were ſtruck, the Veſſel drove, with both Anchors ahead, on a Shoal of ſix Feet Water, but it blowing hard, and the Sea running very high, ſhe beat over it in three Hours Time, and the Anchors catch'd the Side of the Bank, and brought her up, where ſhe rid that Night: That the 25th being very ſtormy they could do nothing: That on the 26th they tripp'd their Anchors, got into the Channel, and made ready for ſailing; but that Night there was ſo much Ice made in the Bay, that it drove them to and fro till the 28th in the Morning, when they were forced on the Weſtern Flats, and the Ice laid the Ship on her Beam Ends: And that at Night ſhe drove over the Flats, and went on the Shoals of Pool's Iſland."

The Ship Joſeph and Jane, Capt. Worſdale, alſo of this Port, and bound on the ſame Voyage, ſailed in Company with Capt. Blair, and was drove on the ſame Shoals, about ſeven or eight Miles Diſtance from the Molly. The Captain writes that ſhe was pretty much cut with the Ice, but that ſhe was upright and tight. And as the Weather has of late been favourable, we hope ſoon to be able to give an Account of their both getting off.

In the laſt Letters from London (Via New-York) there is Mention made of Captain Davis's being to ſail for this Port about the firſt of November; and that the Captains Budden and Gibbons were up for this Place.

The Snow Muggy, Captain Styles, belonging to this Port, is ſafe arriv'd at Antigua.

From the Capes there is Advice, that what Veſſels were in the Road in the late Storm the 24th and 25th of laſt Month, got all ſafe out to Sea.

SIR,

THE following tragical Story (which you are welcome to publiſh, if you think proper) has been related as coming directly from the Family of the infamous Actor; gives a dreadful View of the ruinous Effects of Paſſion let looſe; and ſhews how thoſe who lay Snares for others, come at laſt to find themſelves taken.

A certain noted Libertine, who uſed to put in Practice all Sorts of mean and ſordid Arts for inſnaring Beauty and Innocence, among others, made it his Cuſtom to go often diſguiſed to the Inns, where the Country Stage-coaches and Waggons put up, in order to get Intelligence of his Prey, or to inveigle and undo the Beautiful and Innocent, immediately on their Arrival in Town.

Being one Day, on this mean and unmanly Employment, at an Inn in Holborn, pretending to wait for One whom he expected to come to Town in a Stage-coach, as he ſat in a public Room, obſerving what paſſed, and liſtening to what was ſaid, he heard a Countryman ſay to his Friend who ſat by him, Do you know Mr. Such-a-one, a Linen-draper in the Strand, in your Neighbourhood? Perfectly well, anſwers the other. Then (ſays the Countryman) I think I had as good give you the Trouble of this Letter to him, as I ſhall have a good Deal to do; it will ſave me ſome Walking. It is, you muſt know, about Sally Such-a-one, Mr. Such-a-one's Daughter, the handſomeſt young Gentlewoman in our County. She is to come under Mr. --------'s Care, (naming the Linen-draper above mentioned) and as ſhe is a main comely young Woman, her Father and Mother are very curious of her; and have writ to the Gentleman to come hither to the Inn, and take her directly Home to his Houſe; for you know a handſome young Woman is in Danger of being inveigled in this Town. He is to put her a Year or two to Boarding-School, I think; for ſhe is but about fifteen or ſixteen. The old Folks have only her, and ſhe will have all. She is to come by the York Stage-coach on ſuch a Day.

All this was greedily liſtened to by our diſguiſed Libertine, and the Names and other Particulars carefully ſet down. He then went away from the Inn, and waited impatiently for the Day, on which the York Stage-coach was to arrive. Which being come, he took a Hack, and went, dreſſed like a Citizen, as far as Highgate, to wait the coming up of the Stage-coach. As ſoon as it appeared, he went up to it, and aſked if Miſs Such-a-one was not in it. Being anſwered in the Affirmative, he told her, that he was the Perſon, to whoſe Care ſhe was directed by her Parents; enquired kindly after their Health; opened and read a Letter ſhe gave him directed to the Gentleman whom he wickedly perſonated; and told her, he had conſidered, that it muſt be agreeable to her to get as ſoon as ſoon as poſſible out of the Stage-coach, and that he had therefore taken an Airing ſo far on purpoſe in a Hack, in which he would carry her directly to his own Houſe. All this was readily believed by the poor thoughtleſs Innocent, who gave herſelf up to her barbarous Betrayer, with as little Suſpicion of Danger, as a Lamb, that is led to the Slaughter, and licks the cruel Hand that is going to cut its Throat. He carried her to an Apartment he had provided for the Purpoſe, and there, throwing off the Maſk, diſcovered to her that he was not the Perſon ſhe took him for; but upon ſome other Pretence, whether by a Mock-marriage, or by Promiſes, or Threats, is not particularly known, he accompliſhed his villainous End, and triumphed over that Virtue which might have bleſt the Arms of a worthy Huſband.

He kept her in that Manner, for a conſiderable Time, concealed from all the World, under the Care of one of thoſe infernal Sorcereſſes called Bawds--- a Sort of Monſters, who, though themſelves of the weaker Sex, are capable of unnaturally giving their Aſſiſtance to the Ruin of their own weaker Sex.

In the mean time, the Gentleman, to whoſe Care this unfortunate young Creature was directed by her Parents, went, according to their Direction, to receive her at the Inn in Holborn, where the Stage-coach put up. But what was his Surpriſe, and that of the Company of the Coach, when it was found that ſhe was betrayed, and that the Perſon who had met the Stage-coach at Highgate, and had taken her with him, was an Impoſtor!

The honeſt Citizen was at no ſmall Pains and Expence in having Search made for her. But, as there was no one privy to the Contrivance, but the Hag, to whoſe Keeping the unhappy Innocent was committed by her inhuman Betrayer, his Diligence produced no Diſcovery. Being uncertain what the Conſequences might be with reſpect to himſelf, that is, how far he might be in Danger of being ſuſpected of a Concern in the Villainy, he reſolved to ſend a genuine Account of the Affair to the Parents, which he did accordingly by next Poſt. The Conſequence of the News was, the almoſt immediate Death of the unhappy Mother, which was ſoon followed by that of the Father.

After ſome Months the brutal Appetite of the wicked Raviſher beginning to be palled, and being informed by the unhappy young Lady, that ſhe was with Child, he reſolved to get rid of her at any Rate, and employed the ſame helliſh Hag, who had been her Keeper, to take her out on ſome Pretence in the Evening, in a Hackney Coach, and loſe her in the Streets, which ſhe eaſily effected.

The wretched young Creature finding herſelf thus abandoned, ordered the Coachman to carry her to the Houſe of the Linen-draper, to whoſe Care ſhe was originally directed. That weak Man, upon the Sight of her, calling to mind the Vexation and Expence ſhe had coſt him, as well as Loſs of Character, by Suſpicions raiſed of his having been privy to the curſed Contrivance of carrying her off, refuſed to give her Admittance into his Houſe, or to hear her Defence of her Conduct, and telling her, that ſhe had been the Cauſe of the Death of her Father and Mother, bid her to go where ſhe came from.

The unhappy young Lady, having heard of the Fate of her Parents, and being turned out of the Linen-draper's Houſe, in ſo rude a Manner, was too much overwhelmed with Grief and Aſtoniſhment to give any Vent to Tears or Exclamations, which are the Effect of Sorrows of a common Kind. She went a little Way from the Door, and ſtood motionleſs and inſenſible, till a common Street-walker, paſſing that Way, and obſerving ſome ſtriking Traces of Beauty thro' the Gloom of Melancholy which clouded her Face, prevailed with her to go along with her to a Houſe of infamous Character, to which ſhe belonged. That unhappy young Creature, not caring where ſhe went, or what became of her, accompanied the other home at her Deſire. The Conſequence of which was, her falling quickly into the Hands of ſome filthy diſeaſed Wretch, by whom ſhe was infected in a Manner, that ſhe foreſaw would prove mortal, without very ſpeedy and effectual Relief; which therefore ſhe refuſed, deſiring nothing ſo much as Death. She was ſoon after, by the ſordid and unfeeling Miſtreſs of the Houſe, ſent up into the Garret, to die by Inches, unpitied, and unrelieved; while the inhuman Monſter, who had brought her to this Diſtreſs, was perhaps regaling a Sett of wicked Companions, over their Cups, with an Account of his Art and Succeſs in betraying and ruining her.

That infamous Wretch, the Diſgrace of his Rank and Sex, had a Cuſtom of diverting himſelf and his filthy Companions by going to a Houſe of ill Fame, and calling for all the Wenches belonging to it, he and his Friends would ſpend two or three Hours in purſuing them up and down Stairs, and through every Room of the Houſe, and whenever any One was caught, ſhe was to be uſed in ſome indecent or brutal Manner.

One Day being engaged in this beaſtly Diverſion, he happened, in Purſuit of one the Wenches, to ſtumble into the very Garret, in which the wretched Victim of his Inhumanity lay in her laſt Agonies. At the Sight of One whom he had ſeen in all the Bloom of Youth and Beauty, now deformed with Diſeaſe and Wretchedneſs, and brought by him to all this Miſery; he could not, Demon as he was, help ſhuddering with Horror. She had juſt Breath enough to aſk him, upon his approaching the Place where ſhe lay, Whether he would not ſuffer her at leaſt to die in Peace? He immediately gave over his frolickſome Humour, called for the Miſtreſs of the Houſe, ſwore, ſtamped, and raged, called her a thouſand Brutes, Hags, and Fiends, for ſuffering her Fellow-creature to lie in her Houſe in ſuch a Condition without Relief; ordered her to be moved into the beſt Room; had a Phyſician ſent for immediately, and all proper Care taken of her. But it was now too late. The poiſonous Influences of the moſt cruel and horrible of all Diſeaſes had by this Time overpowered her Conſtitution, ſo that ſhe could only be ſo far recovered, as to have Senſe and Breath to reproach her cruel Undoer with ſome Account of the Miſeries ſhe had ſuffered from the Time he turned her out into the World; which he himſelf related, with Agony and Horror inexpreſſible, upon his Death-bed; by which Means, if I am rightly informed, the Particulars came to be known. He ſaw, with Anguiſh and Amazement, thoſe Limbs convulſed, which he had claſped with Rapture, thoſe Lips tremble and grow pale, and thoſe Eyes glare Deſpair and Agony, on which he had gazed with profane Deſire. Her laſt Pangs ſtabbed his ſavage Heart, and as he ſaw her expire, he curſed himſelf to the bottomleſs Pit for his Barbarity to one who was formed to move Tenderneſs and Love in any Breaſt, but that of a brutal Voluptuary.

Thus periſhed in Infamy and Miſery in the Flower of her Age, and an innocent Babe in her Womb, a young Lady, whoſe Beauty might have been the Delight, and her Virtue the Happineſs of a Man of Honour and Worth; who might have been the fruitful Mother of many Children, and a Comfort to a worthy Family: And in her Ruin were involved two Parents of Credit and Character, whoſe Life was bound up in their only Child, and could not outlive the Loſs of her in ſo ſhocking a Manner.

When the wicked Author of this Scene of Barbarity and Brutality came to be upon his Death-bed, none of the infamous Deeds, of which his Life was little elſe than a continued Series, lay ſo heavy upon his Soul as his Cruelty to this unhappy young Lady. This appears from the Account he gave of it, in private, on his Death-bed, but eſpecially in his laſt Agonies. Having, in his dying Convulſions, been for ſome Moments ſpeechleſs and motionleſs, ſo that all about him thought him quite gone, he ſuddenly rouſed himſelf, as if he had in that Inſtant ſeen the bottomleſs Pit opened upon him, and crying out, with a Voice which ſtruck all preſent with Amazement and Horror, O that unhappy Girl! O ruined Innocence! O wicked Wretch! expired with the Words in his Mouth.

By the Captains Bradford and Davis, arriv'd at Boſton from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

His MAJESTY's moſt gracious SPEECH to both HOUSES of Parliament, on Thurſday, the fifteenth Day of November, 1753.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE called you together as early as your Attendance upon your private Affairs would admit; and I am confident, that you are all met with the beſt Diſpoſitions, to give ſuch Application and Diſpatch to the Buſineſs of this Seſſion, as may be moſt conducive to the publick Utility. The Events of this Year have not made it neceſſary for Me to offer any Thing in particular to your Conſideration, relating to Foreign Affairs. The Continuance of the publick Tranquility, and the general State of Europe, remain upon the ſame Foot as when We laſt parted; and you may be aſſured of My Steadineſs, in purſuing the moſt effectual Meaſures to preſerve to My People the Bleſſings of Peace.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have nothing to aſk of you, but the neceſſary Supplies for the ordinary Services of the enſuing Year; and ſuch as have been already under your Conſideration. I have ordered Eſtimates to be laid before you; and from the Experience I have had of your conſtant Regard for My Honour, and the Security, as well as Eaſe, of your Fellow-Subjects, I entertain no Doubt of your making the proper Proviſions for theſe Purpoſes.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I am ſorry to be obliged again to mention to you a Subject, which reflects Diſhonour upon the Nation, as well as creates great Danger and Miſchief to My good Subjects. It is with the utmoſt Regret I obſerve, that the horrid Crimes of Robbery and Murder are, of late, rather increaſed than diminiſhed. I am ſenſible that Works of Reformation are not to be effected at once; but every Body ſhould contribute their beſt Endeavours: And let Me earneſtly recommend it to you, to continue your ſerious Attention to this important Object. Whatſoever ſhall be found expedient, either in this, or any other Reſpect, for the Welfare and Happineſs of My People, ſhall meet with My hearty Concurrence and Support.

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Die Jovis, 15 Novembris, 1753.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our humble Thanks for Your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

Every Opportunity of approaching Your Sacred Perſon, furniſhes us with new Matter, for acknowledging Your Majeſty's conſtant and unwearied Attention to the Welfare of Your Kingdoms; which is in no Inſtance more conſpicuous, than in Your Vigilance to preſerve to them the Bleſſings of Peace. Our juſt Confidence in Your Majeſty's purſuing the moſt effectual Meaſures for this Purpoſe, is equal to thoſe grateful Sentiments with which our Hearts are filled on this Occaſion. The Honour and Security of the Nation, both at Home and Abroad, the Maintenance of our Religion and Liberty, the Protection and Extenſion of our Commerce, and every Branch of the National Happineſs, are the Objects of Your Royal Care, wiſely and ſteadily exerted for the common Good of Your People.

It gives us the utmoſt Concern, that it ſhould be neceſſary for Your Majeſty, again to take Notice of the Increaſe of thoſe horrid Crimes of Robbery and Murder, which are arrived at ſo great a Height. We are duly ſenſible, that Your Majeſty's Juſtice is never wanting to protect the Innocent, and puniſh the Guilty; and it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour to inforce, and add Vigour to, the Laws for bringing ſuch audacious and obſtinate Offenders to Puniſhment. Your Majeſty, like a true Father to Your People, has often graciouſly recommended to us the ſalutary Work of Reformation; which, though it proceeds too ſlowly, we will not fail to promote to the utmoſt of our Power.

Nothing ſhall be wanting on our Part, to anſwer your Majeſty's juſt Expectations, that the publick Utility ſhall be our Rule in carrying on the Buſineſs of this Seſſion; and we humbly entreat Your Majeſty to accept our ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that as the Continuance of Your precious Life, is the Subject of our ardent Wiſhes and Prayers; ſo the Support of Your Government, the Glory of Your auſpicious Reign, and the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in Your Royal Family, are, and ſhall be, the invariable Principles and Aim of our Conduct.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious Anſwer.

My LORDS,

NOTHING can be more agreeable to Me, than this very dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. I thank you for it: And, as My great Aim is your laſting Proſperity, be aſſured, that the Confidence you repoſe in Me, ſhall be made uſe of for the Honour and true Intereſt of the Nation.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Commons to the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our humble Thanks for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

And we aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will not fail, on our Parts, to give ſuch Application and Diſpatch to the Buſineſs of this Seſſion, as may be moſt conducive to the publick Utility.

The happy Continuance of the general Tranquility calls upon us to expreſs our Gratitude to Your conſtant Attention to an Object ſo eſſential to the Intereſt of Your People: And we have the utmoſt Confidence in Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Steadineſs, that You will purſue the moſt effectual Meaſures for preſerving to this Nation the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Peace.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will chearfully raiſe ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be found neceſſary for the Services of the enſuing Year.

Nothing can be more pleaſing to Your faithful Commons, than to receive freſh Marks of Your Majeſty's Gracious Approbation of our paſt Zeal and Regard for Your Honour, as well as for the Security and Eaſe of our Fellow Subjects.

We lament, with the deepeſt Concern, that the Methods hitherto attemped to repreſs and prevent the horrid Crimes of Robbery and Murder, ſo grievous, as well as diſhonourable, to this Nation, have proved ineffectual; but we aſſure Your Majeſty, that however difficult the Taſk may be, to reform, or even reſtrain, the Deſperate and the Abandoned, we will, nevertheleſs, perſevere in our ſerious Endeavours to provide, if it be poſſible, a more adequate Remedy againſt ſuch Enormities, being fully perſuaded, from an uninterrupted Experience of Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, that we ſhall be aſſiſted by Your Majeſty's Concurrence and Support in every Meaſure, that ſhall be found expedient, in this or any other Reſpect, for the Welfare and Happineſs of Your People.

A liſt of the prizes to be publiſhed in the publick papers as ſoon as the drawing is compleated, that the fortunate may know the fate of their tickets.

The tickets will begin to be ſold by the managers, at their reſpective dwellings on Friday the 7th of September inſt.

We hope a deſign of this kind will meet with encouragement, as the only motive that induced the ſociety to enter on ſuch a ſcheme, was their being thoroughly ſenſible of the diſadvantages they labour under, and the great neceſſity there is of a houſe in Germantown, for their miniſter to inſtruct thoſe children in reading and writing, whoſe parents are unable to give them ſuch education; and as the ſociety amongſt themſelves are unable to accompliſh ſuch an undertaking, were importuned to have recourſe to a lottery, in order to enable them to carry on the ſame, as it will tend to the publick good.

A SCHEME
Of a LOTTERY, for raiſing the ſum of Six Hundred and Seventy-five Pounds, to be applied to erecting a School-Houſe, aſſiſting a Schoolmaſter, &c. for the benefit of the poor of the ſociety of the Dutch Reformed Congregation, commonly called the Calviniſts, in Philadelphia.

AS ſoon as the lottery is drawn, an account of the fortunate tickets ſhall be publiſhed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, and the prizes paid by the ſigners of the reſpective tickets, after deducting Fifteen per Cent.

The prizes not demanded in ſix months after the drawing, to be deemed generouſly given for the uſes aforeſaid, and not to be demanded afterwards.

We hope a deſign of this kind will meet with publick encouragement, as the ſociety, without troubling others, hitherto have done all in their power to erect a place of worſhip in this city; but conceiving the inſtructing the riſing generation of the utmoſt conſequence, and many of the ſociety unable to bear the expence of ſchooling, they have been tempted to take theſe meaſures to procure publick help to erect a ſchool-houſe, and aſſiſting a maſter in inſtructing the helpleſs in the principles of religion, and the uſeful knowledge of reading and writing.

The drawing certainly to commence on the 18th day of March next, and to continue till finiſhed, at the new building next door to the ſign of the Saſſafras-tree, in Saſſafras-ſtreet, commonly called Race-ſtreet, where due attendance and care ſhall be given by the managers; ſuch of the adventurers as chuſe to attend, may be by at the drawing.

The tickets are now ſelling by the above managers, at their reſpective dwellings; and by Jacocb Winey, Michael Deal, and Henry Shellenberg.

THE SUBSCRIBERS to this Paper who live remote from Philadelphia, many of whom are many Years in Arrear, are once more requeſted to conſider how impracticable it is for us to wait on every one of them at their Houſes for the Money, and how eaſy it is for them to find proper Opportunities of conveying it to us. As a News-paper, which is a publick Convenience, cannot poſſibly be maintained under ſuch Diſcouragements, we hope we ſhall be excuſed, if, for the future, we diſcontinue it to ſuch as do not pay at the Year's End, and take ſome proper Method of recovering what has been long unjuſtly withheld from us.
